

Objects and liquids in my luggage

Questions about security / safety

1. Does your luggage contain a prohibited item or dangerous goods (see below) ?
2. Have you agreed to carry anything for someone else ?
3. Could anyone have placed something in your luggage without your knowledge ?
4. Do you have a lithium battery in your luggage ?

If any answer is 'yes', please inform this check-in agent immediately

Non - exhaustive list, subject to airlines' particular requirements

Not allowed in hand luggage

No liquids (gels, creams, pastes etc) in containers larger than 100 ml

No clinical mercury thermometers

No firearms (or imitation firearms), and no sharp pointed or edged objects with blades exceeding 6 cm

No blunt instruments, sports equipments or work tools

Prohibited in hold luggage and hand luggage

Allowed under certain conditions in hand luggage

E-cigarettes allowed in hand luggage only

Cartridges allowed in avalanche rescue backpacks only (no spare cartridges)

Allowed under certain conditions in hold luggage

Fire arms and ammunition

Allowed in hand luggage

One lighter per passenger carried on you

Lithium batteries or spare batteries, max 100 Wh

Allowed in hold luggage and hand luggage

Electronic devices with batteries not exceeding 100 Wh

Batteries between 100 Wh and 160 Wh : allowed with airline authorisation

Batteries in luggage

Hold luggage: no battery or spare batteries allowed

Hand luggage: batteries or spare batteries allowed, if they do not exceed a power of 100 Watt hours (Wh) and comply with the following requirements :

- A maximum of two batteries if their individual power does not exceed 100 Wh
- Each battery must be protected against short circuits (individually wrapped)
- Airline authorisation for batteries above 100 Wh
- It is not allowed to recharge devices/batteries on board the plane.

Measures must be taken to prevent unintentional activation of the heating element on board the aircraft.

Note: batteries (up to a maximum of 100 Wh) inserted in a device are allowed in hand luggage or hold luggage