

PRACTICAL TIPS FOR RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

✔ RESPONSIBLE TOURISM AT THE BEACH

- I do not throw cigarette ends on the ground or in the sand
- In the vicinity of sensitive and protected ecosystems, I prefer non-motorised activities
- I favour sandy areas without coral reefs to anchor my boat
- To dive or observe marine animals, I choose an approved organisation
- I do not damage the seabed with my fins, do not touch the corals and keep a respectful distance from animal species
- I make sure not to discharge pollutants into water
- On picnics, I favour reusable packaging and utensils
- I pick up my rubbish and any rubbish I find, and limit my use of disposable plastic bags
- I eat local fish from sustainable fishing
- When fishing, I respect out-of-season periods and minimum catch sizes
- I prefer to leave alone algae, driftwood or shells that are used as shelters by marine species
- I do not buy souvenirs made of protected marine species
